2415.07 TITLE I – CEDAR CREEK HIGH SCHOOL PARENTAL INVOLVEMENT

GENERAL EXPECTATIONS

Cedar Creek High School will put into operation programs, activities, and procedures for the involvement of parents with Title I, Part A programs, consistent with Section 1118 of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA). Those programs, activities, and procedures will be planned and operated with meaningful consultation with parents of participating children.

Consistent with Section 1118, Cedar Creek High School will work to ensure that the required school-level parental involvement policies meet the requirements of Section 1118(b) of the ESEA, and each include, as a component, a school-parent compact consistent with Section 1118(d) of the ESEA.

Cedar Creek High School will incorporate this Parental Involvement Policy into its plan developed under Section 1112 of the ESEA.

In carrying out the Title I, Part A parental involvement requirements, to the extent practicable, Cedar Creek High School will provide full opportunities for the participation of parents with limited English proficiency, parents with disabilities, parents of homeless students, parents of immigrant students and parents of migratory children, including providing information and school reports required under Section 1111 of the ESEA in an understandable and uniform format, including alternative formats upon request, and to the extent practicable, in a language parents understand.

If Cedar Creek High School's plan for Title I, Part A, developed under Section 1112 of the ESEA, is not satisfactory to the parents of participating children, Cedar Creek High School will submit any parent comments with the plan when the school district submits the plan to the New Jersey Department of Education.

Cedar Creek High School is required to reserve and spend at least one percent of the district's Title I, Part A allocation on parent involvement, Cedar Creek High School will involve the parents of children served in Title I, Part A schools in decisions about how these funds will be spent and will ensure that not less than ninety-five percent of the one percent reserved goes directly to the schools.

Cedar Creek High School will be governed by the following statutory definition of parental involvement, and expects Title I schools in the district will carry out programs, activities, and procedures in accordance with this definition:

Parental involvement means the participation of parents in regular, two-way, and meaningful communication involving pupil academic learning and other school activities, including ensuring-

1. That parents play an integral role in assisting their child's learning;
2. That parents are encouraged to be actively involved in their child's education at school;
3. That parents are full partners in their child's education and are included, as appropriate, in decision-making and on advisory committees to assist in the education of their child; and
4. The carrying out of other activities, such as those described in Section 1118 of the ESEA.

In the event that the State of New Jersey or the New Jersey Department of Education has a Parental Information and Resource Center, Cedar Creek High School will inform parents and parental organizations of its purpose and existence.

DESCRIPTION OF HOW CEDAR CREEK HIGH SCHOOL WILL IMPLEMENT REQUIRED CEDAR CREEK HIGH SCHOOL PARENTAL INVOLVEMENT POLICY COMPONENTS

Below is a description of how Cedar Creek High School will implement or accomplish each of the following components outlined below (Section 1118(a)(2), ESEA):

5. Cedar Creek High School will take the following actions to conduct, with the involvement of parents, an annual evaluation of the content and effectiveness of this Parental Involvement Policy in improving the quality of its Title I, Part A schools, as indicated in the School wide Plan. The evaluation will include identifying barriers to greater participation by parents in parental involvement activities (with particular attention to parents who are economically disadvantaged, are disabled, have limited English proficiency, have limited literacy, or are of any racial or ethnic minority background). Cedar Creek High School will use the findings of the evaluation about its Parental Involvement Policy and activities to design strategies for more effective parental involvement, and to revise, if necessary (and with the involvement of parents) its parental involvement policies.

(List actions, such as describing how the evaluation will be conducted, identifying who will be responsible for conducting it, and explaining what role parents will play):

- a. The District Supervisor of Special Projects will convene an annual meeting, to which all parents shall be invited to attend, to participate in the annual evaluation of the content and effectiveness of the Parental Involvement Policy in improving the quality of its Title I schools. Parents will be invited to participate in the needs assessment, as stakeholders in the School wide Planning Committee. The summary of the needs assessment will be shared with the Superintendent and the Cedar Creek Administrative Team.
- b. Building supervisors of professional development, mathematics, and language arts literacy will meet with the District Supervisor of Special Projects to discuss the summary of the parents' needs assessment and input into the development of a plan to meet parent, student and teacher needs.
